

TRAINING LEARNING PERFORMING

TRAINING OF TRAINERS 21st Century Training Delivery

(Course information)

Introduction

This is a two-week training course. The training requires full time attendance and active participation of all the participants.

This training will utilize a wide variety of learning strategies, methods and techniques. Participants are encouraged to seek visual solutions to training problems they have encountered and to experiment with new "ways" of 21st century Training Delivery.

Course goals

At the end of course, participants will be able to:

- ✓ Share training experiences since ToT (Technical Instructions and Vocational Andragogy)
- ✓ Analyze instructional content for 3PBL training delivery
- ✓ Design and develop effective 3PBL training delivery
- ✓ Use TVET learning Management System (LMS).
- ✓ Speak a common language of 21st Century training delivery.

Who will benefit

Trainers, instructors of training institutions who have successfully passed all four Modules of ToT-Technical Instructions and Vocational Andragogy and have demonstrated adequate performance in the institute.

Areas covered

The following areas are specifically address in the course.

- ✓ Introduction to 21st Century skills
- ✓ Explain the concept of good Instructions
- ✓ Be a professional trainer/mentor
- ✓ Use management-based objectives
- ✓ Use 3D instructional first aids
- ✓ Use total quality training standards
- ✓ What is 3PBL training
- ✓ Conduct Process based training
- ✓ Conduct Problem based training
- ✓ Conduct Project based training
- ✓ Use LMS

General information

The course language will be in English. Instructional materials provided are also in English.

The TTTRC will award certificates to those participants who successfully complete the training.

About TTTRC

The overall objective of the TTTRC is to be:

Center of Excellence for TVET Research and Human Resource Development for the National TVET system.

The TTTRC is mandated to carry out the following:

- Cater to the professional development, skills training, and qualification upgradation of all TVET trainers and those involved in the national TVET system;
- Serve as a resource center for all types of research and development activities in TVET;
- Ensure effective linkages and liaisoning with industries;
- Promote institutional linkages with similar regional and international TVET institutions;
- Become a model institute catering professional services at par with the regional and international institutions.
- Facilitate and coordinate the development of curriculum for new training programmes, as per the relevancy and national standards.
- Facilitate & coordinate the review & revision of curriculum for various VET programmes as demanded by the market.
- Train the Trainers of the VET training institutes and other training providers through various methodologies adopted in the teaching learning activities.
- Oversee the development of instructional materials, manuals, Learning Management system (LMS) and brochures.

For further inquiries, please contact:

Technical Trainers Training and Resource Center
Department of Workforce Planning and Skills Development
Ministry of Education and Skills Development

Phone: +975-77107863
Web: ttrc.bt
E-mail: ttrc@ttrc.bt

Sarpang: Bhutan