

TRAINING OF TRAINERS VISUALIZATION (TOT-V)

(Course information)

Introduction

ToT-V is the second course in a training path for trainers. This is a two-week face to face training course. The training requires full time attendance and active participation of all the participants.

This course is to provide training institutions with highly skilled, creative trainers capable of planning, delivering and evaluating individual training sessions.

Course goals

At the end of course, participants will be able to:

- ✓ Select appropriate non-projected instructional media.
- ✓ Develop instructional media using locally available resources
- ✓ Design and develop effective visual images using technology approaches
- ✓ Apply design concepts when visualizing message.
- ✓ Speak a common language of media terms.

Who will benefit

This course is appropriate for pre- and in-service trainer/instructional staff, field workers, instructional material developers from the public and private sectors.

Areas covered

The following areas are specifically address in the course.

- ✓ Development of models, stencils, templates and visualized teaching packages.
- ✓ Preparation of wall charts, flipcharts, animated charts and flip pictorial manuals
- ✓ Presentation of information with chalkboards, marker board, pin board, flip charts, wall charts, animated charts, virtual reality and other three-dimensional instructional aids.
- ✓ Graphical visualization of statistical/numerical information
- ✓ Evaluation of instructional media

General information

The course language will be in English. Instructional materials provided are also in English.

The TTTRC will award certificates to those participants who successfully complete the training.

About TTTRC

The overall objective of the TTTRC is to be:

Center of Excellence for TVET Research and Human Resource Development for the National TVET system.

The TTTRC is mandated to carry out the following:

- Cater to the professional development, skills training, and qualification upgradation of all TVET trainers and those involved in the national TVET system;
- Serve as a resource center for all types of research and development activities in TVET;
- Ensure effective linkages and liaisoning with industries;
- Promote institutional linkages with similar regional and international TVET institutions;
- Become a model institute catering professional services at par with the regional and international institutions.
- Facilitate and coordinate the development of curriculum for new training programmes, as per the relevancy and national standards.
- Facilitate & coordinate the review & revision of curriculum for various VET programmes as demanded by the market.
- Train the Trainers of the VET training institutes and other training providers through various methodologies adopted in the teaching learning activities.
- Oversee the development of instructional materials, manuals, Learning Management system (LMS) and brochures.

For further inquiries, please contact:

Technical Trainers Training and Resource Center
Department of Workforce Planning and Skills Development
Ministry of Education and Skills Development

Sarpang: Bhutan

Phone: +975-77107863
Web: tttrc.bt
E-mail: tttrc@tttrc.bt