

TRAINING OF TRAINERS DACUM Facilitator Training STAGE-I(Course information)*Introduction

This is one week training course. The training requires full time attendance and active participation of all the participants.

This training will utilize a wide variety of instructional techniques in a group and individual activities. A performance evaluation on various aspects of DACUM facilitation will be conducted. Principles of adult learning will guide the overall facilitation process.

Course goals

At the end of course, participants will be able to:

- ⇒ Share training experiences since Technical Instructions and Vocational Andragogy.
- ⇒ Conduct occupational research
- ⇒ Organize DACUM workshop.
- ⇒ Facilitate DACUM workshop.

Who will benefit

Trainers, potential trainers, instructors of training institutions who have successfully completed technical Instruction and Vocational Andragogy involved with training curriculum development in public and private organizations.

Areas covered

The following areas are specifically address in the course.

- ✓ Computer skills
- ✓ Over view of TVET curriculum
- ✓ Over view of occupational classification
- ✓ Over view of Job Analysis approaches
- ✓ Conduct Job Analysis
- ✓ Conduct Rapid Job Analysis
- ✓ Conduct occupational research
- ✓ Verify occupational research
- ✓ Apply DACUM questioning strategy
- ✓ Select DACUM panel members
- ✓ Facilitate DACUM workshop.

General information

The course language will be in English. Instructional materials provided are also in English.

The TTTRC will award certificates to those participants who successfully complete the training.

About TTTRC

The overall objective of the TTTRC is to be:

Center of Excellence for TVET Research and Human Resource Development for the National TVET system.

The TTTRC is mandated to carry out the following:

- Cater to the professional development, skills training, and qualification upgradation of all TVET trainers and those involved in the national TVET system;
- Serve as a resource center for all types of research and development activities in TVET;
- Ensure effective linkages and liaisoning with industries;
- Promote institutional linkages with similar regional and international TVET institutions;
- Become a model institute catering professional services at par with the regional and international institutions.
- Facilitate and coordinate the development of curriculum for new training programmes, as per the relevancy and national standards.
- Facilitate & coordinate the review & revision of curriculum for various VET programmes as demanded by the market.
- Train the Trainers of the VET training institutes and other training providers through various methodologies adopted in the teaching learning activities.
- Oversee the development of instructional materials, manuals, Learning Management system (LMS) and brochures.

For further inquiries, please contact:

Technical Trainers Training and Resource Center
Department of Workforce Planning and Skills Development
Ministry of Education and Skills Development

Phone: +975-77107863
Web: tttrc.bt
E-mail:tttrc@tttrc.bt

Sarpang: Bhutan

